Hobbies

I love traveling, mostly in Spain.
This hobby has opened up to me
a lot of beautiful cities and places in Spain.
I love programming. Not boring and never stops working my head.
I love sports, but I rarely do them.

Profile

I am a front-end developer, currently working with teams that create SPA applications using the following stack of technologies:

React.js / Redux / TypeScript.

The next stages of learning that interest me are React Native and Python, because I see myself as a Full-stack developer.
